IMPORTANT DATES

REGULATIONS

- Entries are open to South Australian wine makers only. Only wines made from grapes grown within South Australia are eligible to enter.
- All entered wines must be bottled and labelled at the time of delivery.
- All entries must be commercially available in SA via cellar door or commercial wine merchants - minimum production of 75 cases (9LE excluding 375ml fortified products) for all classes
- Successful entries will be printed as per information provided by the applicant when submitting the entry. It is the responsibility of the entrant to ensure correct details are provided
- Each product can be submitted to one class only
- There is no limit to the number of submissions per winery, but entries are capped at 1,500 submissions. Entrants must be aware that submissions may close early once this limit is reached
- All entries become the property of The Adelaide Review Pty Ltd.
- Head Steward reserves the right to transfer entries from one class to another class
- We require four (4) bottles of each entry, regardless of closure
- Wine bottles must be delivered between Monday July 30 to Friday October 12, between the hours of 8am – 2pm
- The Adelaide Review, TAFE SA and Freight Hub accept no responsibility for, and will not pay for, any freight, loss or damages. Under no circumstances will The Adelaide Review, TAFE SA, Freight Hub or any of its officers or employees be responsible for the late, non delivery or misdelivery of any entries.
- Entry fees will not be refunded if an entry is not received by the due date, withdrawn by the exhibitor after entry, or if disqualified by the Head Steward. Entries can be added to, or substituted with another, prior to deadline, but not after.
- Late deliveries will not be accepted
- The Judges Top 100 decisions will be final, and no correspondence shall be entered into.
- 'New to the game in SA'
If you are a producer in SA who is just starting up or has just broken out independently in the last 3 years, let us know, you may be rewarded. Tick the appropriate box if you meet this criteria.

PRIVACY POLICY

Entrant's information is collected solely for purposes relating to The Hot 100 SA Wines competition and magazine. Contact details will be used to relay information relating to administration and advertising components of the Hot 100, provided to the Head Steward during the course of judging and used as a contact database for announcing the following year's event. Information gathered from entrants will not be passed on to third parties. Any request to update, modify or delete contact details should be directed to The Adelaide Review.

If entering online, please review Enofile Online's privacy policy and terms of use.

JUDGING

Judges will blind taste all submissions and select the most outstanding examples with each successful wine individually featured in the Hot 100 magazine.

The Head Judge will have the power to disqualify or dismiss any entry, which in their opinion, does not meet judging standard. Such disqualification will be final and no correspondence shall be entered into unless otherwise stated.

All wineries that have successful entries in the Hot 100 magazine will receive copies of the magazine for promotional/cellar door use. And also may be invited to participate in events throughout the season.

AWARDS & MAGAZINE

100 of all entered wines will be selected as The Adelaide Review Hot 100 South Australian Wines for 2018/19, and will be listed in the Magazine.

Of these 100 wines, a Top 10 will be selected. The Top 10 wines will receive prominent position and editorial coverage in the Hot 100 magazine. They will also be offered editorial coverage in The Adelaide Review Food and Wine section within the next 12 month period from the magazine's launch.

The Top 10 wines will receive invitations to the launch night and will be presented with a certificate. The number one wine will receive special recognition as the Wine of the Year and two return tickets to a global destination of your choice, courtesy of Singapore Airlines.

The launch of the magazine and announcement of Top 10 Winners will take place at the awards night on Friday December 6

FINALIST ENGAGEMENTS

Wineries selected in the Top 10 must be prepared to supply three dozen bottles of the winning wine, which will be used at the awards night on December 6 and throughout the year for promotion of the finalist 10 wines and the Hot 100 wines program.

Winemakers from the Top 10 will be required to attend an Awards Evening on December 6 in order to receive the award.

As part of the promotion of finalist wineries, winemakers may be asked during the season to be involved with events/marketing activities though out the year.
